DESCRIPTION

One of the few finca houses on the island, near Santa Eulalia, which has been completely restored by the well-known architect Philippe Rutthier. The property, carefully renovated, preserves the originality of the property, is located close to the town, yet offers privacy in harmony with nature. A central heating system and a public water and electricity connection ensure that you are comfortable all year round. A very rare opportunity to secure one of the last unobstructed fincas on Ibiza!
