DESCRIPTION

Well cared cottage surrounded by pine forest set within walking distance to the beach.

This is a very well maintained single story house, located in a pine tree forest just on the outskirts of the beautiful unspoiled beaches of the northeast of the island.

The neighbourhood is very peaceful and quiet. The property is kept in a very traditional style. The living room provides a functional fireplace and leads to a covered veranda that offers a nice view to the see through the surrounding pine trees. There are 2 bedrooms each with a bathroom ensuite.

The 100 sqm rooftop is the perfect spot to let the soul dangle and enjoy the sounds of nature. Although the property is in prime condition, a modernisation would come in its favor
