This brand new Blakstad project is situated on its own private hill on a huge plot of 189,000 sqm. This beautiful blakstad home will leave nothing to be desired and stay true to the finca style typical for Ibiza. It will comprise a total of 6 suites, all with private bathrooms, a large bright living room and a kitchen with sliding doors opening onto the various terraces.

The house will be built at different levels of altitude and will be fully integrated into the landscape and its surroundings.

Due to the offset of the natural terraces you have an open and wide view from each level into the surrounding fields.

This fantastic new project will be handed over ready to move in. There is still the possibility to customize some details to your individual taste.
