DESCRIPTION

This property is sitting majestically on a hill between San Mateo and Santa Ines, in any case one of the last best kept secret locations on the island. Here is where one finds true peace in nature, overlooking the valley of Es Broll and protected by its own forest.

This original finca was transformed by its former owner and the recent owners brought it to their taste with high class designer elements and cosy features that make this villa a perfect family home. Next to the main house and outdoor guest rooms there is a staff quarter, a proper tree house, a wooden cabin, playground and an organic garden.

Asking Price: 11,000,000 Euro
